GICNS Newsletter

August 2018

September is approaching quickly and so is the new school year!

We welcome all of our new and return co-op families to the 2018/2019 school year, filled with discovery, learning, and growing.

This is the first of our bi-monthly newsletters to help keep you updated with important school information.

There is also a bulletin board just inside the front doors to the school where information will be posted.

Enrollment: There are still spots available in both classes for this school year!

If you know of anyone looking for a preschool, please send them to www.gicns.com for more information and an application
